The Minutes

C035924 In re KIRSTEN S. et al.; SACRAMENTO COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES v. MORRIS S.

(Not for Publication)

The judgment of dependency is affirmed but ordered stayed. All orders subsequent to the judgment are vacated. The juvenile court is directed to communicate with the District Court of Curry County, New Mexico, in accordance with the UCCJEA and the views expressed above. On remand, the juvenile court may exercise its powers of equity to place the minors with the paternal grandmother or other appropriate caretaker pending determination of the appropriate forum. In the event the State of New Mexico declines jurisdiction in favor of California, the stay of the judgment shall be lifted and the juvenile court shall determine the placement and custody issues for the minors in accordance with the views expressed above.

CALLAHAN, J.

We concur: Blease, Acting P.J.
 Sims, J.
